

What to wear for job interview

Beyond the Resume: Crafting a Winning First Impression Through Attire

The job interview. A nerve-wracking experience, no doubt. But beyond the carefully crafted answers and practiced anecdotes lies another crucial element: your attire. A well-chosen outfit can project confidence, professionalism, and the appropriate level of respect for the company culture. Conversely, an inappropriate choice can undermine all your hard work and leave a lasting, negative impression. This dives deep into the world of interview attire, exploring what to wear, why it matters, and how to navigate the nuances of professional dressing for various industries and roles.

Understanding the Power of First Impressions

A compelling first impression is paramount in the interview process. Studies show that 55% of communication is nonverbal. This encompasses body language, facial expressions, and, critically, attire. Your outfit subconsciously conveys messages about your personality, professionalism, and preparedness. A well-tailored suit, for instance, might suggest competence and seriousness, while a casual outfit could portray a lack of respect. Visual cues like a wrinkled shirt or mismatched shoes can detract from your otherwise strong performance. Data Visual: (Insert a bar graph illustrating the percentage breakdown of factors influencing first impressions. Example: Nonverbal cues (55%), Verbal communication (38%), and Written communication (7%).)

Decoding the Dress Code: Industry-Specific Guidelines

The appropriate attire varies significantly depending on the industry and the specific role you're applying for. A financial analyst will likely need a different approach than a social media manager.

Formal Industries (Finance, Law, Consulting):

- Suits: Typically a must, in neutral colors like navy blue, gray, or black. Opt for a well-fitted, classic style.
- Shirts: Button-down, crisp, and in neutral colors (white, light blue, or pastel).
- Shoes: Polished Oxfords or loafers.
- Accessories: Minimalist accessories are key, such as a simple watch and a modest tie (if required).

Creative Industries (Design, Marketing, Media):

- Style: While still maintaining a professional appearance, a more contemporary style is often acceptable. Clean lines and tailored pieces can still project a professional image. • Color: A wider range of colors might be considered acceptable, but avoid anything overly flashy or distracting. • Fabric: A high-quality, wrinkle-resistant fabric is critical. • Shoes: Leather oxfords, loafers, or even smart sneakers can be suitable.

Technology Industries (Software, IT, Startups):

• Flexibility: The dress code in tech tends to be more flexible. Business casual often reigns supreme. • Cleanliness: Crisp shirts, well-pressed trousers, and clean, polished shoes are still essential. • Consider the company: Research the company's culture and dress code on their website or social media; often, it will reveal subtle indicators of their expected dress standards. Case Study: (Insert a short case study about a candidate who dressed appropriately for a specific industry and landed the role, juxtaposing it with another candidate who under-dressed, losing out.)

Beyond the Basics: Choosing the Right Fit and Fabrics

The right fit matters more than you might think. Clothes that are too tight, too loose, or ill-fitting can distract from your overall presentation. Opt for tailored garments that accentuate your best features without feeling restrictive.

Fabric Focus:

• Wrinkle-resistance: Avoid fabrics that crease easily. A crisp shirt and well-pressed trousers are a must for a professional appearance. • Durability: Invest in durable, high-quality materials that can withstand repeated wear.

Accessorizing with Confidence

Accessories play a subtle but crucial role in enhancing your overall appearance.

Essential Accessories:

• Watches: A simple watch, in neutral colors, provides a professional touch. • Jewelry: Limit jewelry to a modest amount (a delicate necklace or earrings). • Bags: A professional briefcase or tote bag is ideal for carrying documents.

Avoiding Potential Pitfalls: What Not to Wear

While what to wear is important, knowing what not to wear is just as crucial.

Red Flags to Avoid:

• Outdated trends: Avoid trendy, overly casual, or out-of-date clothing. • Unprofessional attire: Items like ripped jeans, t-shirts with graphics, or overly casual shoes are a no-go. • Uncleanliness: Ensure that your clothes are clean, pressed, and without any stains or wrinkles. • Inappropriately revealing clothing: Dress modestly; avoid clothing that draws undue attention to your body. • Clothes that distract: Keep the focus on your interview; anything that might distract from your message is best avoided. Important Considerations:

Addressing Specific Concerns

- What if I don't know the dress code? Thoroughly research the company's culture, look at employees' attire in company photographs or social media, or ask a current employee.
- How do I manage nerves about my outfit? Practice your outfit at home to build confidence in your look and avoid any last-minute surprises.
- What if I'm a freelancer applying for a remote position? The dress code will be less formal than a standard job interview.

and respect.

What to Wear for a Job Interview: Dressing for Success

So, you've landed the job interview – congratulations! This is a fantastic opportunity to showcase your skills, experience, and personality. But before you even utter a word, your attire is sending a message. What you wear for a job interview can significantly impact the first impression you make. It's not just about looking good; it's about looking appropriate, professional, and confident. But what exactly is appropriate? The lines can feel blurry, especially with evolving workplace cultures. Don't worry, we're here to demystify the process and help you craft the perfect interview outfit that screams "I'm the one!"

This isn't a one-size-fits-all situation. The ideal interview attire depends on several factors, including the industry, company culture, and the specific role you're applying for. But fear not, we'll guide you through the common scenarios and provide actionable advice to ensure you're dressed for success, no matter where your interview takes you.

The Golden Rule: When in Doubt, Overdress Slightly

This is our cardinal rule for job interview attire. It's always better to be a little more polished than underdressed. Showing up in a suit for a company that has a casual Friday policy is far less problematic than showing up in jeans and a t-shirt for a more formal environment. Think of it as showing respect for the interviewer's time and the opportunity itself. A little extra effort in your presentation demonstrates that you take the role seriously.

Decoding Industry Norms: What's the Dress Code?

This is arguably the most crucial step. Researching the company's culture is paramount. What do their current employees wear? What's the vibe of their website and social media? Are they a cutting-edge tech startup, a traditional financial institution, or a creative agency?

Formal/Corporate Environments (Finance, Law, Government)

For these traditionally conservative sectors, a suit is usually the safest bet. This is where the classic "interview outfit" reigns supreme.

For Men: The Power Suit

1. Suit: Opt for a well-fitting, single-breasted suit in a conservative color like navy, charcoal grey, or black. Ensure it's clean, pressed, and free of any wrinkles.

2. Shirt: A crisp, long-sleeved dress shirt in white or a light blue is ideal. Make sure it's ironed and fits well around the collar and cuffs.
3. Tie: Choose a tie with a subtle pattern or a solid, complementary color. Avoid anything too flashy or novelty. It should tie neatly and reach the belt buckle.
4. Shoes: Polished leather dress shoes (oxfords, loafers, or derbies) in black or dark brown are a must. Ensure they are clean and in good condition.
5. Socks: Dark dress socks that match your trousers or shoes.
6. Belt: A leather belt that matches your shoes.
7. Grooming: Neat hair, clean-shaven or a well-groomed beard, and clean fingernails. Minimal or no cologne.

For Women: The Polished Professional

1. Suit: A pantsuit or a skirt suit in navy, charcoal grey, or black. If opting for a skirt suit, the skirt should be knee-length or slightly below.
2. Blouse/Shirt: A conservative blouse or button-down shirt in white, cream, or a soft pastel color. Avoid anything too low-cut, sheer, or with busy patterns.
3. Hosiery: If wearing a skirt suit, nude or sheer black pantyhose are generally expected in very formal settings. Ensure they have no runs.
4. Shoes: Closed-toe pumps or elegant flats in a neutral color like black, navy, or nude. A modest heel height is recommended.
5. Jewelry: Keep jewelry simple and understated. A delicate necklace, stud earrings, or a classic watch.
6. Bag: A structured handbag or briefcase that complements your outfit.
7. Grooming: Neat hair, tidy nails (neutral polish is acceptable), and minimal makeup. A subtle fragrance is fine, but avoid anything overpowering.

Business Casual Environments (Tech, Marketing, Some Non-Profits)

This is where things get a bit more flexible, but professionalism still takes precedence. The goal is to look put-together without being overly formal.

For Men: Smart Casual

1. Trousers: Well-fitting chinos or dress trousers in colors like khaki, grey, navy, or even a subtle olive.
2. Shirt: A button-down shirt (long or short-sleeved) or a high-quality polo shirt. Patterns are acceptable, but keep them subtle.
3. Optional Layer: A well-fitting blazer or a V-neck sweater can elevate the look.
4. Shoes: Loafers, clean dress sneakers, or polished chukka boots.
5. Belt: A leather belt that complements your shoes.
6. Socks: Can be slightly more expressive here, but still avoid anything too loud or novelty unless the company culture is very casual.

For Women: Chic and Professional

1. Bottoms: Tailored trousers, a pencil skirt, or a stylish A-line skirt.
2. Tops: A blouse, a high-quality knit top, or a refined button-down shirt. Patterns and colors can be more varied, but still aim for a professional aesthetic.
3. Optional Layer: A blazer, a stylish cardigan, or a well-fitting jacket.
4. Dresses: A professional-looking sheath dress can also be an excellent choice, often paired with a blazer.
5. Shoes: Flats, loafers, low heels, or stylish boots. Ensure they are clean and well-maintained.
6. Accessories: A tasteful scarf or a statement necklace can add personality.

Casual/Startup Environments (Tech Startups, Creative Agencies, Some Retail)

Even in a casual setting, the interview is not the time to test the limits of "casual." You still want to appear professional and put in an effort.

For Men: Elevated Casual

1. Bottoms: Dark-wash, well-fitting jeans (no rips or distressing) or clean chinos.
2. Top: A well-fitting, collared shirt (button-down or a quality polo) or a clean, solid-colored t-shirt worn under a blazer or a smart-casual jacket.
3. Shoes: Clean sneakers (not athletic running shoes), loafers, or desert boots.
4. Grooming: Still paramount.

For Women: Smart and Stylish

1. Bottoms: Dark-wash jeans (no rips), stylish trousers, or a casual skirt.
2. Top: A fashionable but modest blouse, a smart t-shirt, or a neat sweater.
3. Optional Layer: A denim jacket, a stylish bomber jacket, or a casual blazer.
4. Shoes: Clean sneakers, stylish flats, or ankle boots.

Key Considerations for Any Interview Outfit

Regardless of the industry, certain principles apply to every interview attire. These are the subtle details that can make or break your overall presentation.

Fit is King (and Queen!)

This is non-negotiable. An ill-fitting suit can make you look sloppy, and baggy or tight clothing can be distracting and uncomfortable. Invest in tailoring if necessary. Your clothes should complement your body shape, not hinder it.

Cleanliness and Condition

Ensure everything is clean, ironed, and free of stains, holes, or loose threads. Check your shoes for scuffs and polish them. Even the most expensive outfit will fall flat if it's not in pristine condition.

Color Palette

Stick to neutral and muted tones for your main pieces. Colors like navy, grey, black, white, cream, and beige are always safe and professional. You can introduce subtle pops of color through accessories like a tie, scarf, or blouse, but avoid anything too bright or distracting.

Grooming and Hygiene

This is just as important as your clothing. Your hair should be neat and tidy. Nails should be clean and trimmed. If you wear makeup, keep it subtle and professional. Personal hygiene, including fresh breath, is crucial.

Accessories: Less is More

Keep accessories minimal and functional. For men, a watch and a belt are usually sufficient. For women, simple jewelry, a watch, and a professional bag are appropriate. Avoid anything that clinks, jingles, or is overly flashy.

The Power of a Smile (and Good Posture!)

While not clothing, your demeanor is part of your presentation. Stand tall, make eye contact, and offer a firm handshake. Confidence is your best accessory!

What to Avoid in Your Interview Attire

There are certain items and styles that are almost universally frowned upon in a job interview setting. Steering clear of these will save you from making an unintentional misstep.

1. Anything too revealing: Low-cut tops, very short skirts, or sheer fabrics are generally inappropriate.
2. Overly casual wear: T-shirts with graphics, ripped jeans, shorts, flip-flops, or athletic wear are almost always a no-go.
3. Strong fragrances: Perfumes or colognes can be overwhelming and trigger allergies for some. Opt for unscented or very light scents, or better yet, skip them entirely.
4. Excessive jewelry or piercings: While some workplaces are more accepting, it's best to err on the side of caution for an interview. Remove excessive piercings and opt for subtle jewelry.

5. Wrinkled or stained clothing: As mentioned, this instantly detracts from your professionalism.
6. Faddish trends: Stick to classic styles rather than chasing the latest fashion trends, which can quickly become dated or inappropriate.
7. Hats indoors: Unless it's for religious reasons, hats are generally not worn indoors in professional settings.

Virtual Interview Attire: The New Frontier

With the rise of remote work and virtual interviews, it's important to remember that your attire still matters, even if the interviewer can only see you from the chest up.

1. Dress as you would for an in-person interview, at least from the waist up. This means a professional top, whether it's a button-down shirt, a neat blouse, or a smart knit.
2. Solid colors tend to look best on camera. Avoid busy patterns or stripes, which can be distracting on screen.
3. Test your lighting and background beforehand. Ensure your chosen outfit looks good in the lighting of your interview space and that your background is tidy and professional.
4. Avoid distractions. Don't wear anything that might jingle or catch the light in an odd way.
5. Consider a jacket or blazer. This adds a layer of professionalism and can help you feel more put-together, even if only the top half is visible.

Final Thoughts: Confidence is Your Best Accessory

Ultimately, the best interview outfit is one that makes you feel confident, comfortable, and ready to tackle the challenge. When you feel good about how you look, it shines through in your demeanor and your performance. So, do your research, choose wisely, and step into that interview with your head held high. Your attire is just one piece of the puzzle, but it's a crucial one. By paying attention to these details, you'll present yourself as a polished, professional, and capable candidate, ready to make a lasting impression.

The Art of First Impressions: What to Wear for a Job Interview When stepping into a job interview, the clothes you choose do more than just cover your body—they communicate professionalism, confidence, and cultural awareness. In a world where first impressions are formed in seconds, your outfit plays a pivotal role in shaping how recruiters perceive your suitability for the role. Beyond mere aesthetics, the right attire signals that you've taken the time to prepare not just your resume, but your presence. Understanding the context of the interview setting is essential when selecting your outfit. A traditional corporate environment in a financial or legal firm often calls for formal business attire—think tailored suits, crisp blazers, and conservative dresses or professional separates. These choices convey respect for the company’s norms and reinforce your ability to fit seamlessly into a structured workplace. In contrast, modern startups and creative industries may embrace smart casual styles, allowing for well-fitted trousers or slacks paired with a polished blouse or a professional blazer. The key is to align your appearance with the organization’s culture while maintaining a polished, put-together look. Beyond style, timing and context influence what’s appropriate. While business attire remains a safe default, subtle variations can reflect awareness and adaptability. For example, opting for high-quality fabrics and clean lines—even in more relaxed fabrics—demonstrates attention to detail. Accessories, too, matter: a simple watch, professional jewelry, and a neatly pressed coat or blazer add subtle layers of sophistication without overshadowing your core ensemble. These details communicate that you value presentation and take pride in your appearance. The psychological impact of your clothing should not be underestimated. Wearing garments that fit well and make you feel confident can boost your self-assurance, which translates into stronger body language and more engaging communication during the interview. Conversely, ill-fitting or overly casual attire may trigger unconscious hesitations, undermining your ability to project authority. The goal is to dress as the professional version of yourself—someone capable, composed, and ready to contribute meaningfully. Looking ahead, evolving workplace norms continue to reshape what’s considered appropriate. With remote and hybrid interview formats becoming more common, a blend of professionalism and personal style—such as wearing a quality shirt under a blazer while seated at home—reflects modern adaptability. However, when meeting in person, maintaining a polished appearance reinforces your seriousness and respect for the process. Ultimately, the best outfit for a job interview is one that aligns with the company’s culture, fits your role clearly, and makes you feel confident. It’s not about following a rigid formula, but about presenting a version of yourself that embodies readiness, professionalism, and authenticity—qualities that leave a lasting impression long after the meeting ends. In a competitive hiring landscape, your outfit is more than clothing—it’s a strategic tool that communicates your fit for the role and your commitment to excellence. By thoughtfully selecting what to wear, you step into the interview not just as a candidate, but as a professional ready to thrive.

What to Wear for a Job Interview: A

Comprehensive Guide to Making a Powerful First Impression

The job market can feel like a battlefield, and your interview outfit is your armor. Beyond the qualifications listed on your resume, how you present yourself visually plays a crucial role in shaping a hiring manager's perception. Dressing appropriately signals respect for the interviewer, the company, and the opportunity itself. It demonstrates professionalism, attention to detail, and an understanding of workplace culture. But what exactly constitutes "appropriate" attire? The answer isn't a one-size-fits-all proposition. It depends heavily on the industry, company culture, and the specific role you're applying for. This comprehensive guide will break down the essential elements of interview attire, from understanding industry norms to selecting the perfect finishing touches, ensuring you make a memorable and positive first impression.

Understanding the Unwritten Rules: Industry and Company Culture

The most critical step in deciding what to wear is to research the company and its industry. A casual tech startup will have vastly different expectations than a conservative financial institution.

The Formal, Corporate World: Suits and Beyond

For industries like law, finance, accounting, and government, a conservative and formal approach is almost always the safest bet. This typically means a full suit. * For Men: A well-tailored, dark-colored suit (navy, charcoal gray, or black) is the standard. Pair it with a crisp, long-sleeved dress shirt in white or a subtle, light blue. A conservative tie with a classic pattern or solid color is essential. Ensure your tie knot is neat and the tie ends at your belt buckle. Polished, closed-toe dress shoes (black or brown leather) with matching socks are non-negotiable. A leather belt that matches your shoes completes the ensemble. * For Women: A matching pantsuit or skirt suit in a similar dark color is appropriate. The skirt should be knee-length or slightly below. A classic blouse or shell in a neutral color (white, cream, light blue) is ideal. Avoid anything too low-cut or sheer. Closed-toe heels (low to moderate height) or smart flats in a neutral color are suitable. Hosiery is often recommended in very formal settings, especially with skirts.

The Business Casual Environment: Blending Professionalism with Comfort

Many industries, including marketing, human resources, and some technology sectors, operate on a business casual level. This offers more flexibility but still requires a polished appearance. * For Men: A sport coat or blazer can be paired with dress trousers or chinos. A collared dress shirt (button-down) is still expected, but you can experiment with subtle patterns or colors. A tie is usually optional, but if worn, it should be less formal than for a corporate setting. Loafers or smart leather shoes are acceptable. * For Women: Tailored trousers, a knee-length skirt, or a sophisticated dress can be worn. A blazer or a well-fitting cardigan adds a layer of professionalism. A smart blouse or a fine-knit sweater is appropriate. Shoes can include heels, flats, or even stylish loafers.

Creative and Tech Industries: Where Personality Shines

For roles in graphic design, advertising, or many tech companies, the dress code can be much more relaxed. However, "relaxed" doesn't mean "sloppy." The goal is to look put-together and confident, showcasing your personal style without being distracting. * For Men: Dark-wash jeans or smart chinos can be paired with a well-fitting button-down shirt, a stylish polo shirt, or even a neat t-shirt under a blazer or a stylish bomber jacket. Clean, fashionable sneakers or casual boots can work. * For Women: Dark jeans, stylish trousers, or a fashionable skirt can be paired with a trendy top, a neat sweater, or a stylish blouse. A denim jacket, a leather jacket, or a fashionable blazer can elevate the look. Fashionable flats, boots, or even clean, stylish sneakers are often acceptable.

When in Doubt, Err on the Side of Caution

If you're unsure about the company culture, it's always better to be slightly overdressed than underdressed. You can always gauge the room and adjust for future interviews if you receive a second interview. A quick LinkedIn search for employees at the company can offer visual clues about their typical attire.

Key Elements of an Interview Outfit: The Building Blocks of Professionalism

Regardless of the industry, certain elements are universally important when assembling your interview attire.

The Foundation: Your Core Garments

* Fit is Paramount: This is arguably the most crucial aspect of any interview outfit. Clothes that are too tight, too loose, or ill-fitting can create a sloppy and unprofessional impression. Invest in tailored pieces or ensure your current wardrobe fits you impeccably. A well-fitting suit or dress can make a significant difference. * Color Palette: Stick to neutral and conservative colors. For suits and core pieces, navy, charcoal gray, black, and brown are safe choices. For shirts and blouses, white, cream, light blue, and other muted tones work best. Avoid bright, neon colors or overly busy patterns that can be distracting.

* Fabric Quality: Opt for well-made fabrics. Natural fibers like wool, cotton, and silk tend to look more polished and wear better than synthetic blends. Wrinkled or stained clothing is an immediate red flag.

The Details: Accessories and Grooming

Once your core outfit is chosen, the right accessories and meticulous grooming can elevate your look from good to exceptional. * Footwear: Your shoes should always be clean, polished, and in good condition. Scuffed or worn-out shoes can undermine an otherwise excellent outfit. Ensure they are appropriate for the level of formality. * Jewelry: Keep jewelry minimal and classic. A watch, a simple necklace, or small earrings are usually appropriate. Avoid anything flashy, noisy, or overly distracting. * Bags and Briefcases: Carry a professional bag that complements your outfit. A sleek briefcase, a structured tote bag, or a professional messenger bag are good options. Avoid oversized backpacks or casual shoulder bags. * Grooming: This is non-negotiable. Ensure your hair is neat and styled. Nails should be clean and trimmed. For women, makeup should be natural and subtle. For men, facial hair should be neatly trimmed. A light application of subtle cologne or perfume is acceptable, but avoid overpowering scents. * Hosiery (for women): In formal settings, neutral-colored hosiery is often expected with skirts and dresses. Ensure there are no runs or tears.

Specific Considerations for Different Scenarios

Beyond industry norms, there are specific interview situations that may require unique considerations.

Video Interviews: The New Frontier

With the rise of remote work, video interviews are increasingly common. While you don't need to worry about your lower half, the upper half is all that matters. * Focus on the Top Half: Wear a professional shirt, blouse, or blazer. Ensure the color contrasts well with your background to avoid blending in. Solid colors often work best on camera. * Avoid Distracting Patterns: Busy patterns can appear blurry or distracting on screen. * Check Your Lighting and Background: Ensure you are well-lit and your background is tidy and professional.

Networking Events and Career Fairs: First Impressions Matter

These events are often more relaxed than formal interviews, but the principle of making a good impression remains the same. * Dress to Impress, but Appropriately: Aim for business casual or smart casual, depending on the event. It's better to be slightly more polished than too casual. * Comfort is Key: You'll likely be standing and mingling for extended periods, so comfortable yet stylish footwear is important.

The Power of Preparation: Trying On Your Outfit in Advance

Don't wait until the morning of your interview to decide what to wear. * Trial Run: Wear your chosen outfit for a day or a few hours beforehand to ensure it's comfortable and you feel confident in it. This also helps you identify any potential issues with fit or accessories. * Check for Wrinkles and Stains: Iron your clothes and check for any last-minute stains or loose threads. * Pack Accordingly: If you're traveling, pack your interview outfit carefully to avoid wrinkles.

Conclusion: Dressing for Success

What to wear for a job interview is more than just a fashion choice; it's a strategic decision that can significantly impact your chances of success. By understanding industry norms, paying attention to fit and quality, and paying meticulous attention to grooming and accessories, you can create an interview outfit that exudes confidence, professionalism, and a genuine interest in the opportunity. Remember, your attire is a silent communicator, and when done right, it speaks volumes about your readiness to impress and excel. So, invest the time and effort into selecting the perfect outfit – it's an investment in your future career.

For women, a blouse or neat sweater with tailored pants or a skirt, and smart flats or low heels are good options. Avoid anything too casual like t-shirts or ripped jeans.
3	How important are shoes for an interview outfit?	Very important! Your shoes are often the first thing people notice after your face. Ensure they are clean, polished, and appropriate for your outfit. For men, dress shoes or loafers are ideal. For women, closed-toe pumps, smart flats, or loafers are generally best.
4	What colors should I avoid wearing to a job interview?	Generally, avoid overly bright or distracting colors like neon. Stick to neutral tones such as navy, charcoal, black, grey, and muted blues for your main outfit. A pop of color with an accessory is usually acceptable.
5	Can I wear jewelry or accessories to an interview?	Yes, but keep it subtle. Choose minimal, classic pieces that don't make noise or distract. A simple watch, a delicate necklace, or stud earrings are generally fine. Avoid excessive or flashy items.
6	What's the deal with 'power dressing' in today's job market?	Power dressing has evolved. It's less about a rigid uniform and more about projecting confidence and professionalism through well-fitting, well-chosen attire that aligns with the company's industry. It means looking polished and put-together.
7	Should I worry about my hairstyle and makeup for an interview?	Absolutely. Your grooming should be neat and tidy. Aim for a polished, natural look. Avoid overly elaborate hairstyles or heavy makeup. The goal is to look professional and approachable, not to make a fashion statement.
8	What's the best advice if the interview is virtual?	Dress as you would for an in-person interview, at least from the waist up! Make sure your top is professional and wrinkle-free. Test your camera angle to ensure you're well-framed and the lighting is good. Avoid busy patterns that can be distracting on screen.
