The Enduring Charm of the 'Step by Step' Cast: A Look Back at a Beloved Sitcom Family

Remember the days of TGIF? For many of us, that meant tuning into ABC on Friday nights to catch a whirlwind of family-friendly sitcoms. Among the brightest stars of that era was undoubtedly Step by Step, a show that captured the hearts of millions with its relatable premise and a cast of characters who felt like an extended family. If you're reminiscing about the Lambert-Foster clan and wondering what became of the actors who brought them to life, you've come to the right place. Let's dive deep into the 'cast of Step by Step' and explore their journeys, both within the show and beyond. Step by Step, which aired from 1991 to 1998, centered on two single parents, Frank Lambert and Carol Foster, who impulsively married after meeting on vacation. They then had to navigate the delightful chaos of merging their three children each into one blended, often hilarious, household. The premise itself was ripe for comedic situations, and the chemistry of the ensemble cast was the secret sauce that made it so successful. From the initial awkwardness of cohabitation to the genuine bonds that formed, the show explored universal themes of family, love, and growing up.

The Patriarch and Matriarch: Patrick Duffy and Suzanne Somers

Leading the charge as the lovable, if sometimes bewildered, parents were Patrick Duffy and Suzanne Somers.

Patrick Duffy as Frank Lambert: The Practical Dad

Patrick Duffy brought a grounded, down-to-earth sensibility to Frank Lambert, a contractor and father of three boys. Frank was the steady hand, the voice of reason (usually), and the loving husband trying to keep his ever-expanding family in line. Duffy was already a television icon thanks to his role as Bobby Ewing in the iconic primetime soap opera Dallas. His transition to the warm, family-oriented world of Step by Step was a testament to his versatility. After Step by Step, Duffy continued to be a familiar face on television. He reprised his role as Bobby Ewing in the Dallas revival, Dallas (2012-2014), much to the delight of long-time fans.

He's also appeared in numerous guest spots on other popular shows and had a recurring role in the Hallmark Channel's The Mistletoe Promise. His presence on screen always exudes a certain comforting quality, which was perfectly suited for Frank Lambert.

Suzanne Somers as Carol Lambert (née Foster): The Energetic Mom

Suzanne Somers was already a household name by the time she signed on to play Carol Foster-Lambert, a beautician and mother of three girls. Carol was the effervescent, sometimes slightly over-the-top, force of nature in the household. She was optimistic, loving, and always ready with a well-intentioned (though not always successful) piece of advice. Somers brought her signature charm and comedic timing to the role, making Carol an instantly likable character. Somers' career was already incredibly diverse, including acting, singing, and authoring. Post-Step by Step, she remained active in television and continued to be a vocal advocate for women's health and wellness. She authored several books, including self-help guides and memoirs, and maintained a strong presence in the media. Tragically, Suzanne Somers passed away in October 2023, leaving behind a legacy of laughter and inspiration. Her contributions to the Step by Step cast and her enduring impact on popular culture will always be remembered.

The Foster Daughters: The "Girly" Side of the Family

Carol's three daughters brought a distinct flavor to the Lambert-Foster household, often clashing with their new stepbrothers but ultimately forming strong bonds.

Staci Keanan as Dana Foster: The Sarcastic Teenager

Staci Keanan played Dana Foster, the eldest of Carol's daughters. Dana was the resident teen queen, concerned with appearances, boys, and navigating the social minefield of high school. She was known for her sarcastic wit and often exasperated reactions to her new, less-than-glamorous stepbrothers. Keanan was a talented young actress who brought a relatable adolescent angst to the character. While Dana was a significant role, Keanan's acting career after Step by Step leaned more towards voice acting and television guest appearances. She lent her voice to animated projects and appeared in episodes of shows like Cybill and Boy Meets World. Though she might not have continued in the same prominent spotlight as some of her co-stars, her contribution to the Step by Step ensemble was vital in creating the family dynamic.

Emily Mae as Karen Foster: The Budding Socialite

Emily Mae played Karen Foster, the middle daughter. Karen was a bit of a dreamer, often focused on fashion, boys, and her own budding social life. She was the quintessential middle child, trying to find her place between her older sister's drama and her younger sister's innocence. Mae's portrayal captured the youthful exuberance and occasional vanity of a teenage girl. Emily Mae's career following Step by Step saw her taking on a few smaller roles in television and film. Like Staci Keanan, she wasn't a constant fixture in Hollywood in the same way some other child actors were, but her presence in Step by Step helped flesh out the Foster family dynamics beautifully.

Angela Watson as Alicia "Al" Lambert (née Foster): The Youngest and Sweetest

Angela Watson portrayed Alicia "Al" Foster, the youngest of Carol's daughters. Al was the sweet, slightly naive, and often observant younger sister. She was frequently the recipient of her older siblings' teasing but also offered moments of genuine insight and empathy. Watson played Al with a natural innocence that endeared her to audiences. Watson's career after Step by Step has been more focused on her personal life and her faith. While she hasn't had a prolific acting career, her role as Al is fondly remembered by fans of the show.

The Lambert Sons: The "Boy" Side of the Family

Frank's three sons brought a different kind of energy to the mix, often in direct contrast to their new sisters.

Brandon Call as Cody Lambert: The Lovable Oaf

Brandon Call played Cody Lambert, Frank's youngest son. Cody was the resident goofball, a good-natured and not-too-bright teenager who was more interested in surfing and playing video games than academics. He was known for his endearing clumsiness and his often hilarious misunderstandings. Call brought a great deal of physical comedy to the role. Brandon Call's time on Step by Step was unfortunately cut short. He left the show in its third season due to a car accident and subsequent injuries. He was replaced by Josh Byer, though the character of Cody remained a fan favorite for the time he was on the show. Call's early departure was a notable moment in the show's history.

Josh Byer as Cody Lambert: The Successor

Following Brandon Call's departure, Josh Byer took over the role of Cody Lambert from season three onwards. Byer stepped into the role and continued Cody's character arc, maintaining the lovable, slightly dim-witted persona. He was a solid addition to the cast, ensuring the continuity of the character. Byer continued to act in various television shows and movies after Step by Step, often in smaller roles. His contribution to the show was to keep Cody's presence consistent, allowing the family dynamic to remain intact.

Christopher Castile as Mark Lambert: The Smarty-Pants

Christopher Castile played Mark Lambert, Frank's middle son. Mark was the intelligent, often sarcastic, and somewhat nerdy one. He was the counterpoint to Cody's boisterous nature and frequently found himself at odds with his new stepsisters, particularly Dana. Castile's deadpan delivery and sharp wit made Mark a memorable character. Castile's acting career after Step by Step was relatively short. He appeared in a few other projects, including the film Beethoven and its sequel, before largely stepping away from acting to pursue his education. He graduated from college and is reported to be working in education. His portrayal of Mark was a key part of the show's early humor.

Sasha Mitchell as J.J. Lambert: The Older Brother

Sasha Mitchell played J.J. Lambert, Frank's eldest son. J.J. was the teenage rebel, often clashing with his father and generally causing a bit of trouble. He was the brooding older brother type, but beneath the tough exterior, there were glimpses of a caring individual. Mitchell brought a certain edgy charisma to the role. Mitchell's tenure on Step by Step was marked by some behind-the-scenes issues, and he was replaced by Josh Byer in season three, who then also took over the role of Cody. Mitchell was a prominent figure in the early seasons, and his character was instrumental in establishing the initial dynamic between the Lambert brothers and their new stepfamily.

The Quirky Supporting Cast

Beyond the core family, Step by Step was peppered with memorable supporting characters who added extra layers of comedy and warmth.

Christine Lakin as Al's Best Friend, Al: The Ambitious One

While not directly part of the core Lambert-Foster family, Christine Lakin's portrayal of Al (Alicia) – Al Lambert's best friend and later boyfriend – was a recurring highlight. Al was a confident, ambitious young woman who often found herself entangled in the family's various misadventures. Lakin brought a vibrant energy to the character, making her a welcome addition to many episodes. Lakin has had a consistent career in television and film since Step by Step, with roles in shows like 7th Heaven and Veronica Mars. She's also an accomplished voice actor and director. Her ability to deliver sharp dialogue and comedic timing made her an excellent foil and friend to the Lambert-Foster clan.

Patrika Darbo as Rosemary Lambert: The Eccentric Grandmother

Patrika Darbo played Rosemary Lambert, Frank's eccentric mother. Rosemary was a force of nature in her own right, often dispensing unsolicited advice and adding to the household's chaos with her peculiar habits and opinions. Darbo's performance was a masterclass in comedic eccentricity, making Rosemary a beloved, if sometimes overwhelming, character. Darbo has had a long and varied career in television, perhaps most notably for her long-running role as Shirley Love on the soap opera Days of Our Lives. Her ability to embody quirky characters made her a perfect fit for Rosemary.

This article delves deep into the iconic cast of Step by Step, exploring their roles, their performances, and the lasting impact they've had on fans.

The Foundation: Patrick Duffy as Frank Lambert

Stepping into the role of Frank Lambert, the perpetually optimistic and slightly goofy contractor, was Patrick Duffy. Known for his earlier success as Bobby Ewing in the groundbreaking primetime soap opera Dallas, Duffy brought a comforting familiarity and a knack for comedic timing to the character. Frank, a widower with three children, was the driving force behind the fateful Las Vegas wedding that united him with Carol Lambert. Duffy's portrayal of Frank was one of steady, albeit sometimes bumbling, paternal love. He was the anchor of the family, often the voice of reason, but also susceptible to the whims of his new wife and their combined brood. His ability to seamlessly transition from a loving father figure to a man slightly overwhelmed by the chaos of his expanded household was a key element in the show's success. Fans remember Frank for his earnestness, his endearing attempts at handyman solutions that often went awry, and his unwavering devotion to his family. The chemistry between Duffy and Suzanne Somers, who played Carol, was palpable, providing the central romantic and familial spark that drove the series.

The Counterpart: Suzanne Somers as Carol Lambert

As Carol Lambert, the stylish and energetic hairdresser, Suzanne Somers was the perfect foil and complement to Patrick Duffy's Frank. Somers, already a household name from her role as Chrissy Snow in Three's Company, brought her signature effervescence and comedic prowess to Carol. Carol was the maternal force, a whirlwind of fashion, enthusiasm, and a deep-seated desire to create a harmonious home for her children and their new step-siblings. Somers excelled at portraying Carol's blend of maternal concern, professional ambition, and a touch of well-meaning meddling. Her interactions with Frank were filled with affectionate banter and a genuine connection that resonated with viewers. Carol's evolution from a single mother to the matriarch of a large, blended family was a central theme, and Somers navigated these changes with grace and humor. Her iconic laugh and her ability to deliver sharp comedic lines made Carol a fan favorite. The dynamic between Somers and Duffy was instrumental in making the unlikely union of their characters feel believable and heartwarming.

The Foster Children: A Mix of Mischief and Maturity

The introduction of Carol's three children from her previous marriage added a significant layer of complexity and comedic potential to the cast of Step by Step. Each child brought their own distinct personality and brought the blended family dynamic to life.

While Call was a solid presence in the early seasons, his departure paved the way for a new actor to continue the character's journey.

Josh Byrne as J.T. Lambert (Seasons 4-6)

Taking over the role of J.T. in season four was Josh Byrne. Byrne infused J.T. with a slightly more laid-back and less antagonistic demeanor than his predecessor. Under Byrne's portrayal, J.T. matured, finding his place within the Lambert-Foster household and developing stronger bonds with his family members. He continued to embody the athletic aspirations and typical teenage concerns but with a growing sense of responsibility and integration into the family unit. The transition between actors for J.T. was handled relatively smoothly, allowing the character's development to continue.

Staci Keanan as Dana Foster

Dana's storylines often revolved around her academic pursuits, her romantic entanglements, and her quest for independence. Keanan brought a relatable intelligence and a nuanced performance to the role, making Dana a character that many teenage girls could identify with. Her comedic delivery and her ability to convey both frustration and warmth were crucial to the show's success.

Khrysta Paffrath as Karen Foster (Season 1) and later as Dana Foster

Interestingly, the role of Karen Foster, Carol's youngest daughter, was initially played by Khrysta Paffrath in the pilot episode. However, due to creative decisions or scheduling conflicts, the character was later re-cast. While Paffrath only appeared briefly in the pilot, her name is a part of the show's early production history. This is a lesser-known fact about the cast of Step by Step, but it highlights the typical production adjustments common in television.

Angela Watson as Karen Foster

Angela Watson took over the role of Karen Foster from the second episode onwards. Karen was the quintessential teenage girl - concerned with fashion, boys, and social standing. Watson brought a bright and bubbly energy to Karen, making her a charming and often humorous presence. Karen's storylines typically focused on her dating life, her social escapades, and her sometimes superficial, but ultimately harmless, teenage preoccupations. Watson's performance captured the innocence and earnestness of a young girl navigating adolescence, and she developed a strong rapport with the rest of the cast. Her character provided a lighter, more youthful perspective within the larger family dynamic.

Christopher Castile portrayed the intelligent and somewhat nerdy Mark Lambert. Mark was the quiet observer, often finding solace in books and science. Castile brought a gentle and thoughtful demeanor to the role, making Mark a relatable character for anyone who ever felt like an outsider or a bit of an academic. Mark's relationship with his step-siblings, particularly his initial awkwardness and eventual bonding, was a key element in the show's exploration of blended family dynamics. Castile's subtle performance grounded Mark and made him a valuable part of the family tapestry.

Brandon Call as J.T. Lambert (Seasons 1-3)

As mentioned earlier, Brandon Call initially played J.T. Lambert, Frank's eldest son. His character, focused on sports and often a bit of a prankster, provided a classic teenage boy's perspective. His presence in the early seasons was crucial in establishing the initial dynamic between the Lambert and Foster families.

Josh Byrne as J.T. Lambert (Seasons 4-6)

Josh Byrne's portrayal of J.T. continued the character's arc, showing his growth and integration into the larger family unit.

Cody Lambert: The Heart of the Family

Perhaps the most memorable of the younger generation was Cody Lambert, Frank's youngest son, played with infectious energy by Sasha Mitchell. Cody was the lovable goofball, the dreamer with a heart of gold and a penchant for getting into outlandish situations. Mitchell's physical comedy and his boundless enthusiasm made Cody a standout character. Whether he was pursuing a bizarre new hobby, attempting to impress a girl, or simply offering a uniquely simple perspective on a complex problem, Cody brought joy and laughter to every scene. His innocence and his unwavering loyalty to his family were central to his appeal. Cody's catchphrases and his often-absurd schemes became a beloved part of the show's comedic fabric, and Sasha Mitchell's performance was instrumental in making him such a fan favorite.

The Supporting Cast: Filling Out the Family Circle

Beyond the immediate family, a strong supporting cast rounded out the world of Step by Step, adding further humor and depth.

King of the Hill: "Uncle" Al

The imposing and often gruff, but secretly soft-hearted, diner owner Al, played by Charles Grant, was a recurring character who provided a consistent source of support and sometimes exasperation for the Lambert-Foster family, particularly for Cody. His gruff exterior hid a genuine affection for the family, and his interactions with them were always entertaining.

The Neighborly Charm: Lily Knight and Ron Glass

The presence of neighbors often adds to the sense of community in a sitcom. While not as central as the core family, the show featured various neighbors who interacted with the Lamberts and Fosters, contributing to the suburban backdrop. For instance, the character of Lily Knight, a somewhat ditzy but well-meaning neighbor, often provided comedic relief through her interactions with Carol. Ron Glass, known for his roles in Barney Miller and Firefly, also made guest appearances, adding gravitas and comedic talent to individual episodes.

The Enduring Legacy of the Cast

The cast of Step by Step was more than just a collection of talented actors; they were the architects of a family that millions of viewers welcomed into their homes for years. Patrick Duffy and Suzanne Somers created a believable and loving couple whose chemistry was the bedrock of the series. The younger cast members, including Staci Keanan, Angela Watson, Christopher Castile, and Sasha Mitchell, perfectly embodied the diverse personalities of children and teenagers navigating a new family structure. The seamless transition of Brandon Call to Josh Byrne as J.T. demonstrated the show's commitment to character continuity. Their individual performances, combined with their collective dynamic, created a show that celebrated the unconventional, the imperfect, and ultimately, the enduring power of family.
